WHY SHOULD I JOIN THE JHA?

LOBBYING – Promoting the hospitality industry

The JHA works for the hospitality industry within government circles and beyond, promoting and protecting the interests of all operators in the industry. As well as lobbying on behalf of the hospitality sector and ensuring its voice is heard, the JHA provides a collection of member benefits designed to save you time and money.

COMMUNICATIONS – Keep in touch

The provision of essential information to keep members informed of industry issues is part of our support commitment. The JHA members' website www.jerseyhospitality.com is a useful resource tool and offers detailed information on all our activities and includes regular newsletters and business updates, mailshots, a lobbying round-up, downloadable documents, industry news and details about upcoming events.

Members have access to first-stage advisory services such as business support advice on employment, training, regulatory and legislative matters.

BENEFITS AND SERVICES – Designed to save you money

We provide a full range of membership advisory and business services, together with benefits that are designed to assist businesses and save them money whilst enabling members to operate more professionally and profitably. By providing these benefits and services, we assist businesses of all sizes to be more productive, innovative and competitive whilst tackling some of the unprecedented challenges – and opportunities - of today and tomorrow.

EVENTS – Meet, share and build relationships

Networking events run throughout the year, which allow members to meet others in the industry, share experiences and build relationships of mutual benefit. These events are diverse so there is something to suit everyone and can range from our industry forums to the AGM luncheon and annual Hospitality Ball.
